Proctor System for Students and Mentors

REVOLUTIONIZING MENTORSHIP WITH AUTOMATED PERFORMANCE TRACKING AND DATA-DRIVEN INSIGHTS

The Problem We're Solving

In traditional education and mentorship systems, tracking student performance, identifying at-risk students, and providing personalized guidance is a manual and time-consuming process. Mentors struggle to efficiently monitor multiple students, while students often lack real-time feedback, structured career guidance, and proactive support.

Impacts:
The absence of automated tracking, predictive analytics, and AI-driven insights leads to missed opportunities for improvement and delayed interventions. There is a need for a data-driven solution that enhances mentorship, streamlines student monitoring, and provides real-time performance analysis with smart recommendations.
